

Many properties have data on their wells posted at the state's DEP website. Search by town and type of well at <http://public.dep.state.ma.us/searchwell/>

This is not an exclusive list, so be sure to check your property file at the Town Hall Board of Health office to see if more information is available on your well and water.